Session 1: "The Leadership Foundation is Built on Personal Growth and Credibility." When a leader's agenda emphasizes continuous learning the entire organization benefits. A healthy leadership mindset drives the energy, creativity and focus of the work environment.

Session 2: "Real Leaders are the Ones Who Take Action." Accomplishing the strategic initiatives, goals, and the mission of the agency is dramatically improved when leaders demonstrate an action bias, making change possible, while working through uncertainty and solving problems.

Session 3: "Leaders See the Future and Share the Vision." It's a leader's responsibility to see beyond their immediate circumstances, and express a longer view. When the power of vision is released, organizations make significant progress toward meeting the evolving needs of its customers.

Session 4: "Leadership Means Investing Your Time and Energy into People." The most effective leaders have learned their time and energy is well-directed when they focus on bringing out the best in the people around them, and giving them opportunities to participate, innovate, and succeed.

Session 5: "Your Character Says More about Your Ability to Lead than Any Other Talent." "Who you are" goes well beyond "what you do." People decide if you can be trusted – evaluating your character, values, and ethics. True leaders make a conscious choice for substance over style.

Session 6: "Communication Links Leaders and Their Followers." Accomplished leaders lead from the front, middle, and back of the pack. Healthy, two-way communication is essential to keep up momentum and motivation, and makes a significant impact on your effectiveness with others.

Session 7: "The Laws of Attraction." Getting people on board, motivated, and producing is a process of attraction. These 7 steps assure leaders advance their agenda by addressing each essential aspect of commitment and collaboration required to get the team working at a high level.

Session 8: "Achievement and Success." Being successful in a leadership role is about moving forward, reaching important goals, and making the climb. Achievements come from a daily discipline to accomplishing tasks, doing the job, and meeting the goals set before the group. Led properly – people reach their potential see success.
