

Inspiring Women Workshop

Offered by:
Honolulu Pacific Federal Executive Board

80% men will die married...80% of women will die single

---

You've likely heard the statistics that women live longer than men and earn less over their lifetimes. This leaves women with a unique set of planning needs and often, more questions than answers such as:

When can I retire?

Do I have to change my lifestyle in retirement?

Will I run out of money?

Join us on Thursday, November 14 from 1 pm - 3 pm
NOAA Auditorium - Ford Island
Presenter: Ann Vanderslice

In this interactive presentation, you'll learn:

- ③ What you can do today to address the risks women are likely to face when they approach finances.
- ③ Basic planning skills you'll need to lead an inspired life whether you're single, married, widowed or divorced.
- ③ How to utilize a federal career to launch your planning.

Women and those who love them (yes - that's you husbands, partners, and friends) are encouraged to attend this fast-paced, Inspiring session.

ABOUT YOUR TRAINER

After 17 years of working closely with more than 16,000 federal employees from more than 40 federal agencies across the country, Ann Vanderslice has a crystal-clear understanding of what it takes for a federal employee to not only understand their benefits, but make the most of them. Considered one of the foremost authorities on federal benefits in the country, many of you may be familiar with Ann from her many presentations for the Honolulu-Pacific Federal Executive Board over the years. Her tremendous knowledge and entertaining style transform the daunting topics of federal benefits and finance into easy-to-understand, easy-to-implement strategies.
